Berva Castle

38.450956, 22.6727008

A few ruins remain of what is likely a castle of Catalan origin. While its exact history is unclear, the castle was probably built during the period of Catalan rule in the region, which lasted from the early 14th century until the mid-15th century. The limited ruins suggest that the structure once served as part of the Catalans' fortification efforts, though much of it has since been lost to time.
